Timeless world of joy

"the cup that brims
over with GOODNESS"

A cross-shaped grid of letters is centered on a blurred, sepia-toned background of a mountain range. The grid consists of a central square containing the letter 'E', which is highlighted in a dark red color. Four other squares are attached to the top, bottom, left, and right sides of the central square, each containing a letter. The letters in the top square are 'T', the bottom square is 'A', the left square is 'M', and the right square is 'U'. The letters 'M', 'E', 'N', and 'U' are arranged horizontally, while 'T' and 'A' are arranged vertically. The background shows rolling hills and mountains under a hazy sky, with some faint structures visible in the distance.

Kashmir is probably the most beautiful provinces in the country known for its snow-capped peaks and beautiful valleys.

Kashmir is also famous for its own variety of Chai - Kashmiri Kahwa.

Kahwa has been prepared by the people of Kashmir for centuries to comfort them during the coldest winter months. Kashmiri Kahwa is a mix of rich ingredients such as cardamom, almonds, cinnamon, and cloves. But it's signature flavor is brought about by saffron, the most expensive Indian spice. Our inhouse master blenders have sourced these ingredients from different parts of India to create a rich Kahwa that emulates the best of Kashmir. Mixed with green tea to create an exotic medley, this tea is great for your health and the taste transports you to the lovely valleys of Kashmir.
